A Report on MCCI Ladies Forum, AMRI programme on 'MAKE IT HAPPEN - encouraging effective action for advancing and recognizing women' on March 7, 2015 at AMRI Hospitals, Mukundapur

MCCI Ladies Forum and AMRI and Sananda Club organized a programme at the eve of International Women's Day on March 7th, on this year's international theme - MAKE IT HAPPEN - encouraging effective action for advancing and recognizing women at AMRI Hospitals, Mukundapur.

The programme comprised FREE HEALTH CHECK UPS of Old Age Women of Navanir-NGO coordinated by MCCI Ladies Forum at AMRI Hospitals, Mukundapur. 15 Old Age Women availed of Free Health Check Up comprising 'Random Blood Sugar', 'ECG', 'Eye Consultation', 'Dental Consultation' and 'Gynecological Consultation'. Transport was provided by AMRI and MCCI Ladies Forum coordinated and supervised the activity

A panel discussion followed in the afternoon when Privilege Card for Women was be launched by Dr. Shashi Panja, Hon'ble Minister for Women & Child Development and Social Welfare, Government of West Bengal who said that "Our government has put special priority on women's health and working successfully with short and long term initiatives. Today's programme is a befitting and meaningful initiative taken on the occasion of International Women's Day and I would like to congratulate the organisers for this'. She also commented 'Merchant's Chamber which was once closed for Ladies is now having an active Ladies Wing is a brilliant kick start and is noteworthy. Women by nature are caring and loving. So this AMRI Hospital dedicated to this section deserves special appreciation.' Ms Supriya Roy, Owner, Sugarr & Spice; Ms Alokanda Roy, Dansuse; Ms Sarbari Dutta, Fashion Designer; Ms Churni Ganguly & Ms Gargi Roychowdhury, Actress; Dr Piya Roy, Gynecologist and Ms Eleena Banik, Painter were all present and joined at the Launch of AMRI Privilege Card for Women.

Ms Divya Agarwal, Immediate Past Chairperson, MCCI Ladies Forum proudly commented 'It is not about us, it is about all women. We the better offs need to come forward to assist the worse offs to make an equitable society. We welcome and invite all to witness this noble initiative and be a part of it.
